DETAILED ACTION

1. Claim 1 is pending and has been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by “Address Book” by CSGNetwork.com (“Address Book”).

Regarding claim 1, “Address Book” discloses a client-based messaging method, comprising:

providing destination information for a plurality of recipients to a messaging client (see “...feature or utility that holds frequently used Internet and/or your addresses...);
and

sending a message to each recipient based on said destination information without regard to the type of recipient messaging device (see “...feature or utility... that is particularly helpful when sending mail or E-mail to several people at once.”).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
